

ST. EDWARD'S UNIVERSITY

OFFICE OF ADMISSION

June 17, 2002

To Whom It May Concern:

It is with great enthusiasm that I write this letter of recommendation on behalf of House of Tutors. In 1991 House of Tutors added the English as a Second Language (ESL) Program and it has become a large component of their business since. It is due to this ESL program that St. Edward's University has a relationship with House of Tutors.

St. Edward's University has unconditionally accepted several students who had previously participated in the courses offered at House of Tutors. These students have been well prepared in their command of the English language and have successfully completed college level course work. We realize that much of their success is owed to House of Tutors. We allow House of Tutors applicants to submit the results of the institutional TOEFL offered there. This exception is offered only to students who come directly from either House of Tutors or two other local language institutions. We allow this simply because we trust and rely on the professional attention the House of Tutors staff pays to their students and the tests administered there.

Our interaction with House of Tutors and their students has been a positive one. I hope that they continue to provide their invaluable service to international students seeking to further their education in the Austin area. Please contact me at (512) 464-8841 if you have any questions or if I can be of further assistance.

Sincerely,

Esmeralda Lozano
